

SUPPORT SERVICES FOR PORT AND MARINE TRANSPORTATION INDUSTRY

Prepared for:

Wisconsin

COMMERCIAL PORTS ASSOCIATION

Prepared by:

Brian Lesinski, CPEA, EMS-LA
Senior Vice President & Director

6 August 2021

Company Overview

- Founded in 1973
- Headquartered in Hunt Valley, Maryland
 - ♦ 25 offices nationwide – 600+ employees
- Full-service environmental, engineering, management, and technology consulting firm
- >$200M annual sales
- Top 200 ENR Environmental Firm

- 100% employee-owned, public benefit corporation (PBC)

EA Experience

EA provides consulting, planning, engineering and program/construction management services to the port, marine transportation, cargo handling, and freight intermodal industry.

50+

U.S. and International
Ports and Harbors

EA Experience

EA provides consulting, planning, engineering and program/construction management services to the port, marine transportation, cargo handling, and freight intermodal industry.

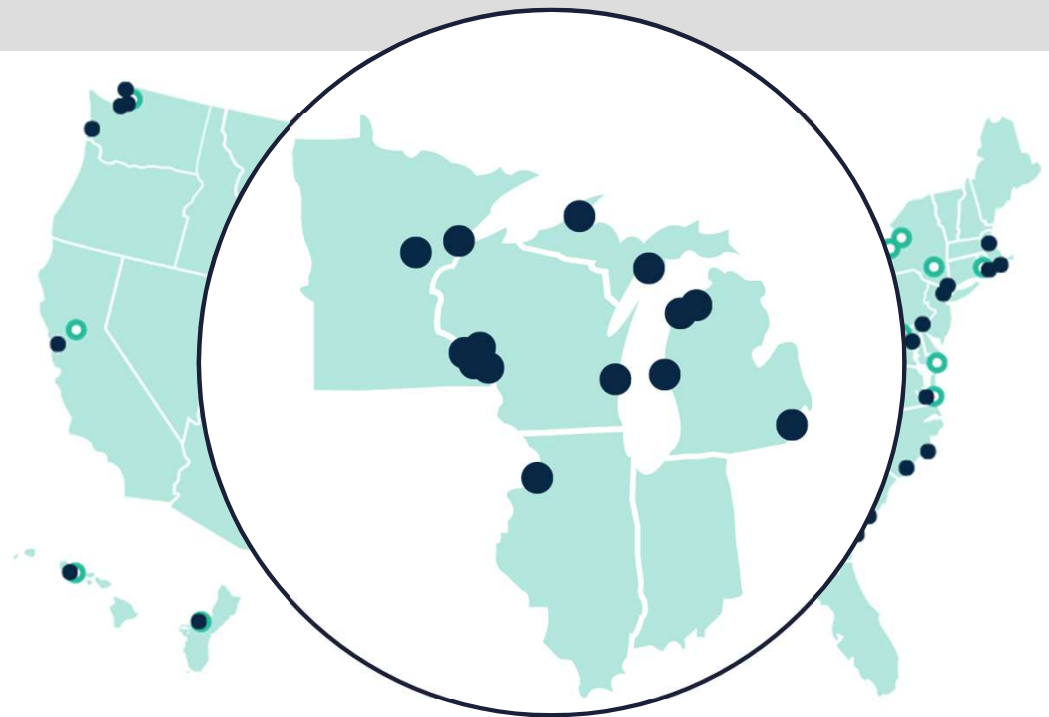

50+

U.S. and International
Ports and Harbors

$35M

Environmental Services
Across Great Lakes
Watersheds

$12 M in Wisconsin

EA Expertise

- Feasibility studies
- Beneficial reuse planning
- Resilience & vulnerability assessments
- Greenhouse gas evaluations

EPA Great Lakes Program - Upper Detroit, MI Riverfront Parks Habitat Restoration

EA Expertise

- Dredged material containment
- Restoration and remediation
- Facility expansion design, cost estimates and specifications
- Contractor representative services

EA Expertise

- Federal and state permitting
- NEPA
- Stakeholder engagement
- Regulatory coordination

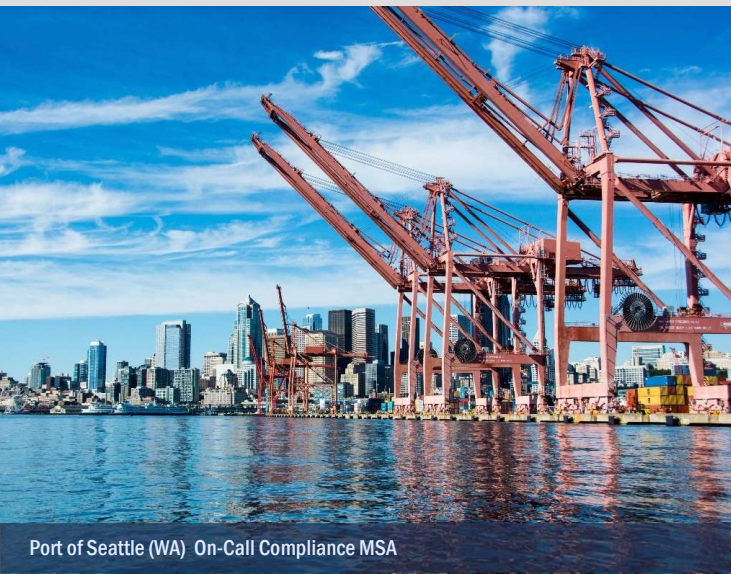

Chesapeake Bay Bridge Tunnel, MD - Parallel Thimble Shoal Tunnel Permitting

EA Expertise

- Spill, stormwater, waste management plans
- Inspections/Auditing
- Data management
- Asset Management
- Training

EA Expertise

- Climate Action Plans
- Voluntary reporting
- Grants & funding pursuits
- Attestation e.g., verification

Thank You!

Brian Lesinski

Senior Vice President & Director
blesinski@eaest.com

Marty Sneen

Senior Aquatic Scientist &
Great Lakes Business Development
Lead
msneen@eaest.com

444 Lake Cook Road, Suite 18
Deerfield, Illinois 60015
Office: 847-607-6484
Mobile: 847-372-6332